Cracking Comprehension Teaching Sequence

1. Pathways lesson 1
2. Pathways lesson 2
3. Cracking comprehension- reading day. Focus on fluency and using story voice. Use choral reading and echo reading techniques. Children to read to themselves, read to a partner, chorally read as a class. Choose parts of the text to echo read to model story voice.
4. Cracking comprehension- vocabulary check. Direct teaching of vocabulary and then complete activities to practise the vocabulary. (See separate document for activity ideas).
5. Cracking- review the vocabulary from the previous day and then model answering a couple of questions. Children to then answer the questions independently.
6. Cracking- Children to mark work with the teacher. Teacher to model marking the answers. Children to tick the answers (in purple) and edit the incorrect answers with the correct answer (in purple). Teachers to then tick in green.
7. Cracking- Children to complete their independent text from Cracking. (Use this as an assessment).
8. Pathways lesson 1
9. Pathways lesson 2
